Welcome to Emmanuel!

We are glad you are here. Our mission at Emmanuel is to love God and God's creation, and our neighbors as ourselves. We are a reconciling, affirming, and inclusive Christian community striving through worship and prayer, study and formation, compassion and service, fellowship and community, to welcome all people just as God created them. We welcome you wherever you are on your journey of faith, and whether you are single, married, divorced, separated, or partnered. We welcome you regardless of your age, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, economic condition, physical condition, or mental ability. We believe that God delights in the diversity of creation, and so do we. We welcome you to our inclusive family; come share the journey.

Prayer acknowledging the People and Land of Orcas Island

Creator, you made all people of every land. It is our responsibility to give thanks and respect to those who first occupied this land we are upon. We give thanks to the Coast Salish Peoples, especially the Lummi (Lhaq'temish) and Samish, the first people of this land. We offer our respect to those ancestors who may be interred in this land. We are also thankful for the gifts of the People of the land. Creator let us be of Good Mind to reconcile the mistreatment of this land and to those who have been displaced. With thankful and respectful hearts we pray in Your Name, Your son the Peacemaker and the Sacred Spirit. Amen.

Amen.

WE PROCLAIM AND RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Chant

Listen, listen, wait in silence listening.
For the One from whom all mercy flows.

First Reading

Lector 1: A reading from the book of Exodus

[24:12-18 NRSV]

The Lord said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

After a period of silence, the reader says:

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People    Thanks be to God.

A Retelling of Psalm 2

The Lector chooses the manner of praying the Psalm or Canticle and explains it to the congregation

Direct Recitation: prayed in unison.

Antiphonal Recitation: one side of the congregation and the other.

Responsive Recitation: the Lector alternating with the congregation.

Why do nations and people plot against one another, setting themselves apart and conspiring against the Beloved and those who follow Love's way?

They say to themselves, “We are free of Love's law; humility and service are for others.”

The Beloved, who is ever present, can but smile at their foolishness, knowing that one day, they will fall to their knees in regret.

Distracted by greed and arrogance they do not hear the Beloved's Voice whispering in the silence:
"Awaken all of you living in darkness! We are all One in Love Consciousness.

You live in my Heart even as I dwell in yours.
For you are mine; I am your Beloved.

I have given you abundant life to love and care for all Creation.
May it be for the delight of All.

Yet, to know Me, fears and illusions must be faced, as an iron rod hitting a clay pot shining Light into the darkness."

Blessed are all who have asked for forgiveness, whose hearts radiate the Love we all are at the core.

Second Reading

Lector 2: A reading from the second letter of Peter

[1:16-21 NRSV]

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

After a period of silence, the reader says:
Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able, and let's chant to welcome the Gospel,

The veil between worlds, it is opening

Sophia is calling our names

to listen to her wisdom

to gather 'round sacred flame.

Lk 23:45

Prov 8:1ff

Prov 9:1ff

Mt 3:11

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Presider: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew
[17:1-9 NRSV]

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ

Six days [after Peter had acknowledged Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God], Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

After a period of silence:

The Gospel of our Savior.

Praise to you Lord Christ.

We chant once more “The Veil.”

THE SERMON

After the sermon we take a moment of silence before the prayers.

Presider

Let us now pray this retelling of the Lord's Prayer,

Eternal Spirit,
Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trials too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love,
now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept. Then is said

Presider Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

All are welcome to receive Christ's sacramental presence in Holy Communion. Our Catechism (BCP p. 860) says that what is required is that we examine our lives and commit to the transformation of our hearts and lives, striving to live in love with God, all people, and creation. If, for personal reasons, you feel you cannot receive Communion at this time, you are nonetheless welcome to come to receive a blessing; indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. If you want to request the sacrament of Baptism, Confirmation, or Reconciliation/Confession, speak with one of our priests.

Receiving the Bread, the Body of Christ: You can kneel or stand at the Communion rail, filling it from right to left. The tradition is to receive the Body of Christ, forming "a throne" with your hands, your two palms open, one on top of the other in a receptive position. To the minister's words, "the Body of Christ, the bread of heaven," it is customary to respond: Amen.

Receiving the Wine, the Blood of Christ: If you wish to dip the Bread in the Wine, leave it in your hand, and the minister will come by to offer you the chalice. If you want to drink directly from the Chalice, consume the Bread before the minister arrives, and they will provide you with the cup to drink directly from; please guide and tip the chalice so you can drink comfortably. If you would not rather partake of the Blood of Christ, cross your hands over your chest. To the minister's words, "the Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation," it is customary to respond by saying: Amen.

Receiving Communion in your pew: If you would like the ministers to bring Communion to your seat, please let the usher know, and we will be glad to do so.

Healing Ministry: A healing minister will be available to pray for you or a loved one. They are seated towards the right of the altar rail, behind the priest's chair. Feel free to approach them and share your intentions.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Presider                    Let us pray.

All                            God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

BLESSING FOR THE SEASON OF EPIPHANY

Presider                    May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and may God's Blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always. Amen.
