

Holy Eucharist
Third Sunday after the Epiphany
January 25, 2026 at 10 am

Emmanuel Episcopal Parish of Orcas Island

Welcome to Emmanuel!

We are happy you are here. Our mission at Emmanuel is to love God and God's creation, and our neighbors as ourselves. We are a reconciling, affirming, and inclusive Christian community striving through worship and prayer, study and formation, compassion and service, fellowship and community, to welcome all people just as God created them. We welcome you wherever you are on your journey of faith, and whether you are single, married, divorced, separated, or partnered. We welcome you regardless of your age, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, economic condition, physical condition, and mental ability. We believe that God delights in the diversity of creation, and so do we. We welcome you to our inclusive family; come share the journey.

Prayer acknowledging the People and Land of Orcas Island

Creator, you made all people of every land. We are responsible for giving thanks and respect for this land we are upon and those who first inhabited it. We thank the Coast Salish people, especially the Lummi (Lhaq'temish) and Samish, the first people of this land. We respect those ancestors who are interred in this land. We are also thankful for the gifts of the people of this land. Creator, let us be of "Good Mind" to reconcile the mistreatment of this land and those who have been displaced. With thankful and respectful hearts, we pray in Your name, Your son the Peacemaker, and the Sacred Spirit. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

Silence is kept for a moment.

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

EKids leave for Sunday School

This little light of mine,
I'm goin'-a let it shine
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine.

First Reading

We may be seated.

Lector 1: A reading from the prophet Isaiah [9:1–4 NRSV^{ue}]

There will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

After a period of silence:

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

S412: Psalm 27: 1, 5-13

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom then shall I FEAR? *
the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be AFRAID?

One thing have I asked of the Lord; one thing I SEEK; *
that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my LIFE;

To behold the fair beauty of the LORD
and to seek him in his TEMPLE.

For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his SHELTER
he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a ROCK.

Even now he lifts up my HEAD * above my enemies round about ME.

Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with sounds of great GLADNESS; *

I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Hearken to my voice, O Lord, when I CALL; *
have mercy on me and answer ME.

You speak in my heart and say, "Seek my FACE." *
Your face, Lord, will I SEEK.

Hide not your face from ME, *
nor turn away your servant in disPLEASURE.

You have been my helper; cast me not aWAY; *
do not forsake me, O God of my salVATION.

Second Reading

We may be seated.

Lector 2: A reading from the Paul's first letter to the Corinthians

[1:10-18 NRSVue]

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. (I did baptize also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

After a period of silence:

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Then all standing, as able, we sing.

Sequence Hymn: "You walk along our shoreline" v.1-2

The Gospel Reading

Presider: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew [4:12-23 NRSV^{ne}]

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fish for people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

After a period of silence:

Presider: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn: “You walk along our shoreline” v. 3

The Sermon

Please be seated.

We Pray for the World and the Church

Please stand as you are able as the Intercessor leads us in prayer.

Intercessor Spirit of Love, you are what holds the world together. May we learn each day how to walk in your love so that our brothers and sisters here and across the world will be the recipients of your love through us.

May we answer the call to show love to our neighbors

Spirit of Love, despite all the anguish of the world, there are so many people who are doing the right thing, feeding the hungry, tending the wounds, rescuing those in danger, caring for the children. May we not lose hope in these times. May we each find a way to be an instrument of Love.

May we answer the call to show love to the world.

Spirit of Love, while we weep for the injustices in our nation, may we be bold in addressing them and seek ways that we can make a difference, even if it seems like a small thing. May our anxieties not paralyze us, and may we find ways to take care of ourselves and each other.

May we answer the call to show love to our country.

Spirit of Love, we are fortunate to live on this island and be part of the Emmanuel community. We are so grateful for the vital spirit of this church, for our priests, Berto and Hugh, as they share their lives and their teachings with us, and for the many ways we have of connecting with the greater community of Orcas Island. May we not take it for granted.

May we answer the call to show love to our church and community.

Spirit of Love, may we be sensitive to the social injustices in our world and find ways to bring comfort to those who live with emotional and physical trauma, grave illness, lack of health care, addiction, lack of employment and housing.

May we answer the call to show love to those in need.

Spirit of Love, we think with love of those who have died and those who have lost someone dear. May your love and ours bring comfort, and may we remember what we have learned from those who have left us.

May we answer the call to show love to those who grieve.

Spirit of Love, we remember and pray for those on our parish prayer list... Tamara... Bill & Jane... Heather... Jan... Cheryl... Ian... James... Dick... Renee... John ... Nick ... Sara...David... The Rev. Pam... Dart and Laura...Skipper... Cynthia & Bruce...Wes & Carol... Bruce... Helen...Diane... Chris...Lynn...Margaret...as well as those persons known only to us... and those for whom no one prays; may they be comforted by your Holy Spirit.

May we answer the call to show love to those in need of your healing touch.

*Those who are celebrating birthdays and anniversaries are invited to come forward.
If you would like your name printed in the bulletin please let the parish office know.*

Presider: Let us pray for those celebrating birthdays this week.
O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants Leni Roberts (1/26), Myles Paige (1/27), and James Reid (1/30) as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Presider: Let us pray for those celebrating anniversaries this week.
Grant, O God, in your compassion, that Doug and Ida Rae McDonald (1/25) may grow in forgiveness, loyalty, and love; and come at last to the eternal joys which you have promised through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer B

Presider: May God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The people remain standing. The Presider says

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Savior.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus #129: “Holy, holy”

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. Through Mary's Holy Child, you have delivered us from evil and made us worthy to stand before you. You have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Dear One; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, gather all things into the circle of Christ’s love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. John the Baptist, St. Joseph, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of all your children; through Jesus Christ, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Most Blessed One, now and forever. Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Invitation to the Table

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Fraction Anthem: “Whoever eats this bread”

Who ev - er eats this bread will live for ev - er. Who ev - er eats this bread will live for ev - er. This is the true bread which comes down from heav - en and gives life to the world. Who ev - er eats this bread will live for ev - er. Who ev - er eats this bread will live for ev - er.

The musical score is written on four staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff (measures 1-5) contains the first line of the anthem. The second staff (measures 6-10) contains the second line. The third staff (measures 11-15) contains the third line. The fourth staff (measures 16-20) contains the fourth line. The piece ends with a double bar line at the end of the fourth staff.

The Presider then says the following Invitation:

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Invitation to Communion: All are welcome to receive Christ's sacramental presence in Holy Communion. Our catechism (BCP p. 860) says that what is required is that we examine our lives and commit to the transformation of our hearts and lives, striving to live in love with God, all people, and creation. If, for personal reasons, you feel you cannot receive Communion at this time, you are nonetheless welcome to come to receive a blessing; indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. If you would like to request the sacrament of reconciliation or confession speak with one of our priests.

Receiving the Bread, the Body of Christ: You are invited to kneel or stand at the Communion rail, filling it from right to left. The tradition is to receive the Body of Christ forming "a throne" with your hands, your two palms open one on top of the other in a receptive position. To the minister's words, "the Body of Christ, the bread of heaven," it is customary to respond: Amen.

Receiving the Wine, the Blood of Christ: If you wish to dip the Bread in the Wine, leave it in your hand and the minister will come by to offer you the chalice. If you want to drink directly from the Chalice consume the Bread before the minister arrives and they will offer you the cup to drink directly from it; please guide and tip the chalice so you can drink comfortably. If you would not rather partake of the Blood of Christ just cross your hands over your chest. To the minister's words, "the Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation," it is customary to respond to both by saying: Amen.

Receiving Communion in your Pew: if you would like the ministers to bring Communion to your seat please let the usher know and we will be glad to come to you.

Healing Ministry: there will be a healing minister available for prayer for yourself or a loved one. Feel free to approach them and share your intention.

Prayer after Communion

Please stand as you are able

Presider. Let us pray:

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

Presider. May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and may God's Blessing be with you, Christ's peace be with you, the Spirit's outpouring be with you, now and always. Amen.

Recessional Hymn #490: "I want to walk as a child of the light"
