Rite II and EOW I

Emmanuel Episcopal Parish
of Orcas Island

We are a reconciling, affirming, and inclusive Christian community, striving, through worship and prayer, study and formation, compassion and service, and fellowship and community, to follow the life and teaching of Jesus the Christ. We welcome you as an image of God and invite you to join us as we grow more and more into God's likeness. We welcome you wherever you are in this spiritual journey; whether you are single, married, divorced, separated, or partnered; regardless of your age, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression, economic condition, or physical or mental abilities. We believe that God delights in the diversity of creation, and so do we!

We remember, honor, and pray for the Indigenous people of the world, especially all the Coast Salish people of this region. We acknowledge and pray for the Lummi People (Lhaq'temish), whose ancestral land we now occupy, and for their enduring relationship with this land since time immemorial. This was their home, and it was taken from them. We give God thanks for their witness to a life connected to and respectful of this land. May we learn from them with humility, always remembering that Mother Earth does not belong to us; that we belong to her; and that we are all relatives. Help us repent of our past sins, learn from them, and be instruments of justice and peace for all people in today's world, particularly the original Indigenous inhabitants.

FIRST TIME AT EMMANUEL?

We are glad you have joined us today. After the service, please join us for Coffee Hour for fellowship and to meet our clergy. If you would like to book a meeting with our priest, use his scheduler at <https://bit.ly/frbert0> or scan this QR code:

Our Sunday service is the Holy Eucharist, also known as the Lord's Supper, Holy Communion, or the Mass. The service follows a steady rhythm of standing, sitting, kneeling, and spoken or sung responses; it's like learning the steps of a new dance. Worship unfolds at two tables: the Word and Holy Communion.

Table of the Word: Scripture readings and a sermon, followed by prayers and the peace. Before the peace, you're welcome (not required) to share your name and where you're from. An offering plate will be passed; if you are able and willing, your financial support is greatly appreciated. In any case, please pass it along. Simply touching it can be a gesture of offering yourself to God. You may also give here <https://bit.ly/Emmanuel-donations> or scan this QR code:

Table of Holy Communion: The priest consecrates bread and wine as the Body and Blood of Christ. All who thirst for God and strive to grow in love are welcome to receive. If you'd rather not receive, you may cross your arms over your chest and the priest will say a blessing for you. Need Communion brought to your seat? Just tell an usher. A Healing Minister is available near the Communion rail if you would like prayers for yourself or on behalf of someone dear to you. In keeping with ancient tradition, the Healing Minister will also offer the laying on of hands and anointing with oil.

- Receiving the Bread, the Body of Christ: Come to the rail (right to left), hands open, one palm atop the other. Gluten-free available on request. You may respond to the Minister: "Amen."
- Receiving the Wine, the Blood of Christ: To drink from the chalice, eat the bread first, then the minister will bring the cup to you. You may also keep the bread in your hand and dip it in the chalice when it comes to you. To decline, cross your hands over your chest. You may respond: "Amen."

FIRST READING

We may be seated.

Lector 1 A reading from the book of Genesis [33: 7-11 NRSV^{ue}]

Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?" So they approached Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this instruction before he died, 'Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.' Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father." Joseph wept when they spoke to him. Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, "We are here as your slaves." But Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones." In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's People.

All Thanks be to God.

S415: PSALM 103: 1-13

Bless the Lord, O my SOUL,
and all that is within me, bless his holy NAME.

Bless the Lord, O my SOUL,
and forget not all his BENEFITS.

He forgives all your SINS
and heals all your INFIRMITIES;
He redeems your life from the GRAVE
and crowns you with mercy and loving-KINDNESS;

The Lord is full of compassion and MERCY,
slow to anger and of great KINDNESS.
He will not always accuse US,
nor will he keep his anger for EVER.

He has not dealt with us according to our SINS,
nor rewarded us according to our WICKEDNESS.
For as the heavens are high above the EARTH,
so is his mercy great upon those who fear HIM.

As far as the east is from the WEST,
so far has he removed our sins from US.
As a father cares for his CHILDREN,
so does the Lord care for those who fear HIM.

SECOND READING

Lector 2 A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

[14:1-12 NRSV^{ue}]

Welcome those who are weak in faith but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat, for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on slaves of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it for the Lord. Also those who eat, eat for the Lord, since they give thanks to God, while those who abstain, abstain for the Lord and give thanks to God.

For we do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written,

“As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God.”

So then, each one of us will be held accountable.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

Then all standing, as able, we sing.

THE GOSPEL READING

Presider The Holy Gospel of our LORD Jesus Christ according to Matthew [18:21-35 NRSVue]

People Glory to you, LORD Christ

‘Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, if my brother or sister sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

“For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him, and, as he could not pay, the lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him by the throat he said, 'Pay what you owe.' Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

The Gospel of the LORD.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Deacon or Presider says

Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence may be kept. The people may kneel.

Presider and People God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER 2

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The people remain standing. The Presider says

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

Presider and People:

Sanctus S125: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel. Then the Presider continues

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Invitation to the Table
